Although the WHIN Website includes links providing direct access to other Internet sites, WHIN takes no responsibility for the content or information contained on those other sites, and does not exert any editorial or other control over those other sites.

WHIN is providing information and services on the Internet as a benefit and service; any opinions, statements or comments expressed by other organisations in either written materials on this site, or in links to other sites do not necessarily reflect the views of WHIN.

Please read the following terms and conditions carefully as they govern the use of this Website.

All material contained within Women's Health In the North's (WHIN) Website (www.whin.org.au) is covered by a disclaimer and protected by copyright laws.

Access to this Website (www.whin.org.au) is subject to the following conditions

A. Copyrights

All information and material on WHIN's Website are copyright and as such are protected by the copyright laws of Australia.

Except as expressly stated in this site, no part of this Website, including information, images, logos, photographs, and overall appearance of the site, may be copied, republished, broadcast or reproduced in any form whatsoever without the prior written permission of the copyright holders.

B. Links to other Websites

Providing the public with information about women's health and wellbeing over the Internet and the World Wide Web is an essential part of WHIN's efforts to carry out its mission.

WHIN recognises that collaboration within the Internet community is an ideal way to deliver information to the widest possible audience.

This Website contains links to other Websites that are operated by third parties. WHIN does not accept any liability over the content of these third party sites. The existence of these links does not constitute an endorsement of such Websites, and your linking to these sites is at your own risk.

Links IN – Other Organisations' Links to WHIN's Website

We welcome links to any part of our Website (www.whin.org.au) from other community, women's, health and welfare organisations; other non profits; government agencies; and others who wish help extend our mission to the community. We ask that you contact us to let us know of your intention to link to our site, along with the purpose of the link. The Web Manager may be contacted at info@whin.org.au. No link may present or display a product or activity in a way that implies WHIN's endorsement.

Links OUT – WHIN's Links to Other Organisations

Generally WHIN links to a number of women's, community, health, welfare, government and other non profit sites. In view of our status as a non profit independent service we don't routinely 'out-link' to private, commercial or other similar service providers or organisations. We do however reserve the right to consider requests to out-link to private and commercial sites when it is determined that such links clearly support WHIN's mission to promote the health and wellbeing of women, and where it is clearly determined that such links will not in any way jeopardize WHIN's reputation, mission or ability to deliver high quality women's health programs and services.

From time to time, WHIN may also decide to out-link to private, commercial or other Websites. The same criteria described above will apply. Such links may be short or long term, at the discretion of the organisation.

C. Content Accuracy

Whilst all reasonable efforts have been made to ensure the accuracy of content, no responsibility can be taken for any error or omission.

D. Privacy

In instances where personal information and/or user data is collected, WHIN is committed to protecting the privacy and confidentiality of any information provided by you. In terms of the relevant privacy legislation, we ensure that your personal information will not be disclosed to others except if required by law or other regulation. We will

- only collect personal information from you with your prior knowledge and consent.
- only use personal information provided by you for the purposes for which it was collected.
- not disclose your personal information to a third party.
- remove all personal information from our systems where it is no longer required (except where archiving is required).

E. Limitation of Liability

WHIN does not guarantee that access to this Website (www.whin.org.au) will be uninterrupted, that this Website will be free from viruses or that this Website cannot be tampered with by third parties. This Website and the information are provided on an 'as is' basis, with no warranties of any kind whatsoever, either express or implied, including, but not limited to, any warranties or any implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose. Use of this Website and the information is entirely at the user's sole risk. In no event will WHIN be liable for any damages whatsoever arising out of or related to this Website.
